Chapter 1 by Monorilakkuma

Everything changed. The people. The laws. And lastly

It all started really badly. Myths about vampires were only covers for them. They hide everywhere. They're hidden in our societies, blending in with all of us. But here, we don't really call them vampires, they're called differently.

Like us mortals, we have ranks. But so do they. Depending on what social status they have, then they'll be called according to that. Or even the amount of power and kills they gained.

But the REAL rulers of these " vampires ", are called Bloodlords.
THE main controller who has the authority, power and everything in their sight.

Lower than the Bloodlords, are the 5 Generals. These, mostly handle major problems like intrusions done by humans or something else...

Chapter 2 by Monorilakkuma

Even if it is a young citizen or old citizen.
They are ordered to do so because it is secretive operation.

No one dares to interfere with what they do or what their purposes are, because if they do, they'll be captured and eliminated or worse, be sent to Gorejail.

Gorejail is a place that no one WOULD ever want to be in, it's the worst place you could have your ass in.

It is to be said that Gorejail's a place where they throw rebellious scumbags who disobey or just plain chaotic.

In Gorejail, they....

Chapter 3 by Skeld

They keep men like me. Hard men with steel in their blood. I am one of them.
But, I am a vampire. So I'm also one of them . I killed my brother, so that's why I'm here. That's actually not quite a big deal. But, I happened to kill a Bloodlord. Now, I'm taking revenge...
